

BOULDER CITY COUNCIL BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS SELECTION

2007

INTERVIEW QUESTIONNAIRE

BOARD OR COMMISSION: Transportation Advisory Board

Instructions:

1. Print or type your responses.
2. Limit your responses to one double-sided page; only one page will be copied for Council.
3. Submit responses to the Office of the City Council by February 23, 2007.

PLEASE ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

1. What are your technical qualifications for this position?
2. If you are appointed, state any potential conflicts-of-interest? Explain.

PLEASE ANSWER ANY FOUR (4) OF THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

1. Does the Transportation Master Plan (TMP) reflect Boulder's community values? Why or why not? If not, what type of changes would you recommend?
2. What neighborhood issues are related to transportation? How might the City work with neighborhoods to address these issues? What is your assessment?
3. How shall Boulder continue to balance the use of autos, transit, bicycles and pedestrians? Explain.
4. What do you see as the highest priorities for upgrading Boulder's transportation system? How should they be funded?
5. How should/could Boulder work with large employers and other governmental entities (university, county, schools) on transportation issues?
6. What types of travel demand management do you think Boulder should pursue to help create a balanced set of travel choices for residents, employees, students and visitors.
7. How do we accommodate the large number of employees commuting to Boulder? How do you think these issues and concerns should be addressed?
8. Describe how (or whether) you believe the City should reconcile the current shortfall between needed funding for the programs and projects identified in the TMP and projected revenues.
9. How would you approach the need of neighborhood residents who want to slow traffic speed and the need of those who want to travel quickly to their destinations?
10. What do you think would be an effective approach for creating regional transportation solutions?
